ITALIAN TABLE

Verbs and expressions with ne

Here we have some of the most used verbs that can conjugate with ne:

INFINITIVE + NE	Meaning	Example	Translation
andarne	to be at stake	Ne va della mia carriera!	My career is at stake!
farne	to make something out of something	Ne ho fatto un tavolo.	I made a table out of it.
saperne	to know something	Ne sa un sacco di queste cose.	She/he knows a lot about this kind of stuff.

ITALIAN TABLE

Verbs and expressions with ne

Here we have some of the most used verbs that can conjugate with ne:

INFINITIVE + REFLEXIVE PRONOUN + NE	Meaning	Example	Translation
approffitarsene	to take advantage of something	Se ne è approfittato per andare in vacanza.	He took advantage of that/of that situation to go on vacation.
dimenticarsene	to forget about something	Ce ne siamo proprio dimenticati...	We really forgot about it...
farsene	to make use of something	Di questo arnese non ce ne facciamo niente.	We don't do anything with this tool.
guardarsene da	to be careful with something/someone	Guardatene da chi non mantiene le promesse.	Beware of those who do not keep their promises.
intendersene	to master something, to be versed in something	Di programmazione ce ne intendiamo.	We know programming very well.
partirsene	to leave from a certain place	Me ne parto domani.	I will leave tomorrow (from that place).
pentirsene	to regret something	Ce ne siamo pentiti subito.	We regret it immediately.
starsene	to stay in a certain place	Mi ha detto che stasera se ne sta a casa.	He/she told me he/she is staying at home tonight.
tornarsene	to go back to a certain place	Se ne sono tornati a Palermo ieri sera.	They went back to Palermo last night.
venirsene	to come back from a certain place	Ve ne venite presto?	Will you come back from there soon?

ITALIAN TABLE

Verbs and expressions with ne

Here we have some of the most used verbs that can conjugate with ne:

INFINITIVE + CI + NE	Meaning	Example	Translation
corrercene	to take a while for something to be realized	Prima che il cenone di Natale sia pronto, ce ne corre.	Before Christmas dinner is ready, it will be awhile.
essercene	to be available in a certain quantity	Ce ne sono quattro.	There are four (of them, whatever that is).
passarcene	to require time for something to occur	Ce ne passa, prima che ci richiamino.	It will be a while before they call us back.
volercene	to require a lot of time/effort to obtain something	Per finire questo progetto, ce ne vuole.	To finish this project, it requires a lot effort/time.

ITALIAN TABLE

Verbs and expressions with ne

Here we have some of the most used verbs that can conjugate with ne:

COMMON IDIOMATIC EXPRESSIONS with NE	Meaning	Example	Translation
averne abbastanza	to be fed up with something	Ne ho avuto abbastanza.	I am fed up with it.
averne piene le tasche	to be tired of something	Ne ho piene le tasche di aspettare il treno.	I am sick of waiting for the train.
combinarne di tutti i colori	to create all sorts of troubles	Quel cagnolino ne combina sempre di tutti i colori.	That little dog always makes a mess.
farsene una ragione	to be at peace with something	Se ne faranno una ragione.	They will eventually be at peace with it.
lavarsene le mani	to disengage from something	Hanno davvero intenzione di lavarsene le mani?	Are they really going to do nothing (about this problem)?
non poterne più	to not be able to take something	Non ne posso più...	I can't take it anymore...
saperne una più del diavolo	to know a thing or two	Credimi, Alfonso ne sa una più del diavolo.	Believe me, Alfonso is really shrewd.
starsene con le mani in mano	to do nothing about it	Potremmo aiutarlo, invece di starcene con le mani in mano.	We could help him instead of doing nothing.
valerne la pena	to be worth	Ho camminato per tre ore per arrivare in cima ma, credimi, ne vale la pena.	I walked for three hours to get to the top but believe me it's worth it.
vederne delle belle	to witness a lot of bizarre situations (ironic)	Dopo gli eventi di oggi, ne vedremo delle belle.	After today's events, we will see some good stuff happening.
venirne a capo	to resolve an issue	Non riesco a venirne a capo.	I am not able to figure out how to solve this problem.