

COURSE STRUCTURE OVERVIEW

Arabic (Levantine)

Mango's learning system addresses four essential language skills: reading, listening, speaking, and culture. Each course chapter contains an overview of conversation goals and grammar goals with a description of what learners will be able to do when they complete the chapter.

As of 2019, the structure and content of the Mango learning system have been substantially revised to align with internationally recognized levels of proficiency. Additionally, the Mango Proficiency Scale was created to help individual learners clearly identify their skill level by accomplishing specific goals as they progress through the Mango learning system.

All Mango learning content is created by linguists and reviewed by certified language instructors. Recent changes include adding content to Mango's courses, updating unit and chapter titles to reflect these changes, and reorganizing the course structure to more effectively address learning requirements at each skill level.

The chart below shows how the previous course content corresponds to the reorganized course structure, along with a key to indicate where each chapter falls on the Mango Proficiency Scale.
